

Germany: Consumer Profile

September 2023

Table of Contents

INTRODUCTION

Scope

Key drivers affecting consumers in Germany in 2022

How developments today shape consumer of tomorrow

Key findings

POPULATION AND SOCIETY

Today 2022: Baby Boomers are the key demographic in Germany

Today: Immigration and influx of refugees and asylum seekers mitigate population decline

Baby boomers are not eager to engage with brands online

Tomorrow 2040: Longer life expectancy and low birth rate boost older cohort

Tomorrow : Millennials will be the largest and most affluent consumer cohort by 2040

Tomorrow : Largest German cities will no longer grow due to population decline

Areas of opportunity

Case study: Pensioners receive more money in 2022 and are willing to spend

HOUSEHOLDS AND HOMES

Today 2022: German households are increasingly opting to live child-free

While household size is decreasing, Germans live in larger more spacious homes

Energy efficiency is a top priority for home features, especially for baby boomers

Tomorrow 2040: Fewer families with children, and more elderly single consumers

Older men will remain key household decision makers

Single-person households to stay somewhat behind in universal internet access

Areas of opportunity

Case study: BVG Jelbi integrating mobility into a one-stop shop for Berliners

INCOME AND EXPENDITURE

Today 2022: Growing incomes and stronger spending by higher income bands

Germany's middle class hit by cost of living crisis

Gen Z Germans demonstrate highest intentions to increase spending

Tomorrow 2040: Social classes D and E to remain most prevalent by 2040

Tomorrow 2040: Senior population will be predominant in the top-income band by 2040

Tomorrow 2040: North Rhine-Westphalia to remain Germany's largest consumer market

Areas of opportunity

Case study: Mycashbacks offer a good way to engage with German consumers

LIFESTYLES

Key findings consumer survey

Younger generations have a more positive outlook on their future

Germans are not relying on government support as much

More than a half of Germans are worried about climate change

Work-life balance matters less, while job security remains the top priority for Germans

Germans put high importance on price, while unique experience are also valued

Areas of opportunity

Case study: Aldi sets goals to improve animal welfare

CONCLUSION

Key findings

About Euromonitor International

Euromonitor International is an independent market intelligence provider. Data, insight and analysis stem from in-the-field research spanning 210 national markets.

Content ranges from the in-depth and country-specific, to key strategic themes with a global range and significance. Products cover a comprehensive range of insights and market data, but can be broadly categorised as:

- Strategy Briefings: Global or regional in scope, and focussing on the most important themes shaping consumer demand, the key markets, competitive environment and future outlook across a range of industries.
- Company Profiles: Analysis dedicated to the world's most significant companies, with detailed insight into their activities, focus of operations, their competitors, their geographic presence and performance.
- Country Reports: For an in-depth understanding of specific countries, whether by industry, economic metrics or consumer trends and lifestyles. These reports cover current trends, consumer demand, market potential and future prospects, with country-specific local insight and comprehensive data, unavailable elsewhere.

For more information on this report, further enquiries can be directed via this link www.euromonitor.com/germany-consumer-profile/report.